

18th International Conference on Dentistry and Oral Health

Advancing Oral Healthcare through Innovation, Research, and Clinical Excellence

Event Dates: May 19–20, 2026

Venue: London, United Kingdom

Organized by: ConferenceMinds

About the Conference

The 18th International Conference on Dentistry and Oral Health will take place on May 19–20, 2026 in London, United Kingdom. This prestigious international event will bring together leading dentists, oral surgeons, dental researchers, orthodontists, prosthodontists, dental hygienists, healthcare professionals, academics, and industry experts from around the world.

The conference will serve as a global platform for discussing the latest advancements in dental science, oral healthcare technologies, and clinical innovations that are transforming modern dentistry. With rapid developments in digital dentistry, minimally invasive treatments, implantology, and regenerative dental medicine, professionals must continuously adapt to new techniques and technologies.

This conference aims to provide a collaborative environment where participants can share research findings, exchange ideas, and explore innovative solutions to improve oral health outcomes worldwide. Through keynote lectures, plenary sessions, oral presentations, poster discussions, and interactive workshops, attendees will gain valuable insights into the future of dentistry and oral healthcare.

The event will also encourage interdisciplinary collaboration among dental professionals, researchers, educators, and healthcare innovators to address global oral health challenges and promote evidence-based clinical practices.

Conference Theme

“Innovations and Excellence in Dentistry: Transforming Oral Health for the Future”

The conference theme emphasizes the integration of innovative dental technologies, research discoveries, and patient-centered care to improve oral health globally.

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the 18th International Conference on Dentistry and Oral Health, which will be held on May 19–20, 2026 in London, United Kingdom.

This international gathering will bring together dental professionals, researchers, educators, and healthcare leaders to share knowledge, discuss emerging trends, and explore innovative solutions in dentistry and oral health.

Over the course of two days, the conference will feature inspiring keynote presentations, cutting-edge research sessions, and opportunities for networking and collaboration. Participants will gain insights into advancements in dental technologies, oral disease prevention, implantology, orthodontics, restorative dentistry, and public oral health.

We believe that collaboration and knowledge exchange are essential for improving global oral healthcare. We are confident that this conference will provide a valuable platform for learning, networking, and advancing dental science.

We look forward to welcoming you to London, one of the world’s most vibrant and historic cities.

Sincerely,

Organizing Committee

International Conference on Dentistry and Oral Health

About ConferenceMinds

ConferenceMinds is an internationally recognized organization that specializes in organizing global conferences across various scientific and medical disciplines. The organization aims to foster innovation, collaboration, and knowledge exchange among researchers, clinicians, academicians, and industry professionals.

ConferenceMinds conferences attract participants from more than 60 countries, creating opportunities for international collaboration and interdisciplinary research.

The conferences organized by ConferenceMinds offer:

- High-quality scientific sessions
 - Global networking opportunities
 - Professional development
 - Knowledge sharing and innovation

Why Attend the Conference

Attending the 18th International Conference on Dentistry and Oral Health provides numerous professional and academic benefits.

Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Learn about the latest advancements in dental research and technology
 - Interact with leading experts in dentistry and oral health
 - Present their research findings to an international audience
 - Expand professional networks with colleagues from around the world
 - Explore emerging trends in digital dentistry and implantology
 - Gain insights into innovative clinical practices
 - Discover opportunities for research collaboration
 - Experience the cultural richness of London
