35TH EDITION OF INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE AND EXPO ON DERMATOLOGY AND SKIN HEALTH

September 15–16, 2026 Paris, France

CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues and Distinguished Participants,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the 35th Edition of International Conference and Expo on Dermatology and Skin Health, taking place on September 15–16, 2026, in Paris, France.

Dermatology is a rapidly evolving specialty driven by scientific discoveries, innovative therapies, technological advancements, and patient-centered care. From chronic skin diseases and dermatology-oncology to aesthetic procedures and regenerative medicine, our field is continuously transforming the way we diagnose, treat, and improve the quality of life for millions worldwide.

This conference provides a unique opportunity to connect with global leaders, share knowledge, explore cutting-edge research, and build collaborations that will shape the future of dermatology and skin health.

We look forward to welcoming you to Paris for two days of inspiring discussions, innovation, and professional development.

Warm Regards,

Conference Chair
